

Ashok G Rajani
Chairman

Apparel Export Promotion Council

(Sponsored by Govt. of India, Ministry of Textiles)

March 9, 2017

Dear Friend,

Textiles India 2017, 30 June to 2 July 2017, Gandhinagar, Gujarat

On behalf of the Ministry of Textiles, GOI, I warmly greet you on the launch of the Textiles India 2017, which is to take place from 30 June to 2 July 2017 at Mahatma Mandir, Gandhinagar, Gujarat

This debutant textile fair is visualised to become a global platform, with an unrivalled reputation, for showcasing the complete value chain of Textiles and the business expertise of India to Buyers from all over the world.

Textiles India 2017 holds the promise of being a landmark event for the Indian Textiles and Apparel Industry. With its extensive exhibition area of over 40000 square metres, TIF 2017 will display wide-ranging creative sustainable innovations in textile design and technology.

Mahatma Mandir, at Gandhinagar, an outstanding example of sustainable architecture is the venue, located in the most progressive Indian state -Gujarat.

The Textiles India 2017, in which over 250 Apparel and fashion accessories participants are expected, will offer unique opportunities for networking with global players and buyers, leading to business from and access to new markets. During the exhibition, round table meetings and fashion shows have been planned.

The Honourable Prime Minister of India has been requested, by the Ministry, to grace the occasion.

In this respect, it will be an opportunity for you to take benefit of the confluence and to make efforts for the successful organization of Textiles India 2017. I also request you as an important stake holder, to join me in taking this global event to great heights by your valued participation and display of the latest fashion, products and techniques.

In this regard, I solicit your support and request you to book your space for making Textiles India 2017 a grand success.

Warm regards,

ASHOK RAJANI