

AEPC:HO: 2016
September 2, 2016

- Subject:
1. Scheme for rebate of 2.65% to 3.90% of state levies on export of garment 2016 under scheme for rebate of state levies on export of garments (ROSL scheme).
 2. Essential condition mentioned in notification no. 12020/03/2016-IT dated 13.8.2016 at para 4.2 which states that "The rate and rebate shall be applicable only to exporters who have constituted an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) in pursuance of the Sexual Harassment of women at workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013, and if the exporter has not claimed or shall not claim credit/rebate/refund/reimbursement of these specific State Levies under any other mechanism".
 3. AEPC's Awareness Session for garment exporters to avail the benefits under this scheme.

Dear Sir/Madam,

- a) Govt. of India has announced in a first of its kind move, a new scheme for refund of state levies which were not refunded so far.
- b) One of the conditions for claiming refund under this scheme vide para 4.2 which states that "The rate and rebate shall be applicable only to exporters who have constituted an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) in pursuance of the Sexual Harassment of women at workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013, and if the exporter has not claimed or shall not claim credit/rebate/refund/reimbursement of these specific State Levies under any other mechanism".
- c) Many of the exporters are not aware of the above condition mentioned at "b" thereby they are not able to claim rebate on refund of levies which ranges from 2.65% to 3.90% based on the fibre composition of the fabric used in manufacturing the garments.
- d) In order to avail the stated benefit and to know more about Internal Complaint Committee under the Sexual Harassment of women at workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013, AEPC is providing you an opportunity to participate in awareness seminar which is being organised as per following schedule :
